RECEIVED

Attached for your consideration is a proposed Order to Cease and Desist, Order for Restitution, Order for Administrative Penalties, and Consent to Same ("Order") against Marty O'Malley and Julie O'Malley.

The Order against the O'Malleys is a consent order. (As to the other respondents in this matter, the Securities Division is filing simultaneously with this Order a proposed default order against the entity and a proposed consent order with Bjerken.)

The Order finds that from approximately January 2009 to September 2013, Deer Park Development Corporation ("DPDC") violated A.R.S. §§ 44-1841 and 44-1842 by offering and selling unregistered stock to 40 persons. When it began selling stock, DPDC was a start-up company looking to get in the business of buying residential properties, rehabbing them, and then selling them for a profit. In its offering materials, DPDC touted the financial wherewithal of its management. DPDC failed to disclose that DPDC's CFO and principal salesman had three prior Commission orders against him; that O'Malley had filed for bankruptcy in 2002; and the results of an audit showing DPDC's losses. These failures to disclose constitute violations of A.R.S. § 44-1991. As a DPDC director, executive, and shareholder, Marty O'Malley is a controlling person of DPDC.

The Order requires Marty O'Malley to permanently cease and desist from violating the Securities Act, to pay a $45,000 administrative penalty and to pay restitution of $842,630.

The Securities Division recommends the Order as appropriate, in the public interest and necessary for the protection of investors.

Robert D. Bjerken,)
Respondents.)	ORDER TO CEASE AND DESIST, ORDER FOR RESTITUTION, AND ORDER FOR ADMINISTRATIVE PENALTIES

12 On September 21, 2012, the Securities Division ("Division") of the Arizona Corporation
13 Commission ("Commission") filed a Notice of Opportunity for Hearing Regarding Proposed Order to 14 Cease and Desist, Order for Restitution, Order for Administrative Penalties, and Order for other
15 Affirmative Action (the "Notice") against respondents Deer Park Development Corporation, Robert 16 Bjerken, and Marty O'Malley and Julie O'Malley.

17 Respondent Deer Park Development Corporation ("DPDC" or "Respondent") did not file an 18 answer or request a hearing by the filing deadline.

19 I.

20 FINDINGS OF FACT

21 1. DPDC is a Nevada corporation organized under the laws of the state of Nevada in 22 November 2005. DPDC has not been registered by the Commission as a securities salesman or dealer.

23 2. Robert D. Bjerken, has been at all relevant times an unmarried man and resident of the 24 state of Arizona. Bjerken has not been registered by the Commission as a securities salesman or dealer.

25 3. During the relevant timeframe, i.e. throughout the years 2009 – 2013, Bjerken was 26 the CFO of DPDC. Bjerken was also DPDC's accountant.

1 4. Respondent O'Malley has been at all relevant times a married man and resident of the 2 state of Nevada. O'Malley has not been registered by the Commission as a securities salesman or 3 dealer.

4 5. At all relevant times, O'Malley was President and a Director of DPDC and 5 O'Malley with his spouse, Julie O'Malley, co-owned at least 30,000,000 shares of DPDC stock.

6 6. DPDC discusses O'Malley's stock ownership and the authority related to such stock
7 in a "Confidential Private Placement Memorandum" (the "PPM") which O'Malley caused to be 8 prepared and distributed to several DPDC investors.

9 7. The PPM states that, prior to the DPDC stock offering that is the subject of this case,
10 O'Malley owned 31,000,000 of the then-outstanding 37,500,000 DPDC shares. The stock offering 11 would result in 50,000,000 total outstanding shares. As the PPM makes clear, before and after the 12 stock offering, DPDC's key officers, including O'Malley, would have control over the election of 13 directors and officers and over the company's major decisions.

14 DPDC's real-property business and the stock offering

15 8. In late 2008, DPDC was a start-up company attempting to get in the business of 16 buying and reselling residential property.

17 9. According to DPDC's PPM, DPDC's principals—including CEO Marty
18 O'Malley—have extensive real estate experience including "front row seats" to previous real estate
19 market cycles. Based on this experience, DPDC would acquire discounted or distressed single-
20 family residences in Phoenix and Las Vegas and resale them for a profit.

21 10. To finance this business, DPDC intended to sell 200 "units" of stock. Each unit
22 contained 62,500 shares and was to be sold for $25,000 for a total aggregate offering of 23 $5,000,000.

24 11. From approximately January 2009 until approximately November 2013,
25 Respondents offered and sold DPDC stock to at least 40 investors within or from Arizona. Several 26 of the investors made multiple purchases.

1 DPDC's real-property business and the stock offering

2 11. In 2005, DPDC was a start-up company attempting to get in the business of buying
3 and reselling both commercial and residential property.

4 12. Based on the experience of DPDC's principals, DPDC would acquire discounted or 5 distressed single-family residences in Phoenix and Las Vegas and resale them for a profit.

6 13. To finance this business, DPDC intended to sell 200 "units" of stock. Each unit
7 contained 62,500 shares and was to be sold for $25,000 for a total aggregate offering of 8 $5,000,000.

9 14. From approximately January 2009 until approximately July 2013, Respondents 10 offered and sold DPDC stock to at least 40 investors within or from Arizona. Several of the 11 investors made multiple purchases.

12 15. In exchange for their investments, the DPDC investors received stock certificates
13 signed by "Marty O'Malley" as President of DPDC.

14 16. All of the 40 DPDC stock investors received a document titled "Subscription for 15 Shares" for one or all of their stock purchases. O'Malley, as President of DPDC, signed
16 Subscriptions given to at least 17 investors including seven Subscriptions that he co-signed with 17 Bjerken; Bjerken, as CFO of DPDC, signed Subscriptions given to at least 24 investors including 18 seven Subscriptions that he co-signed with O'Malley.

19 17. Each Subscription included the number of shares being purchased, the price of the 20 shares, and the signature of the subscriber.

21 18. The Subscription given to the DPDC investors contained the following
22 representation: "The subscriber has read, understands and accepts of the Private Placement
23 Memorandum of Deer Park Development Corporation."

24 19. The DPDC stock offering was not registered as a security with the Commission.

25 20. The 40 investors paid a total purchase price of $842,630 for their DPDC stock.

26 21. Bjerken offered and sold DPDC stock to 39 of the 40 investors.

1 22. Bjerken acted as an accountant for and had longstanding relationships with most of
2 the persons to whom he sold DPDC stock. Several investors relied on Bjerken's favorable opinion
3 of the DPDC investment when deciding to invest.

4 23. The 39 investors to whom Bjerken offered DPDC stock paid a total of $837,630 for 5 their DPDC stock.

6 24. Multiple DPDC investors deposited their funds into a bank account in Arizona for 7 which Bjerken was a signatory. After investor funds were deposited into this account, Bjerken
8 would forward the funds to an account controlled by O'Malley.

9 25. Seventeen investors received Subscriptions signed by O'Malley. These 17 investors
10 consist of one investor who dealt exclusively with O'Malley.

11 26. The 17 investors that received Subscriptions signed by O'Malley paid a total of 12 $303,800 for their DPDC stock; this includes $5,000 from the investor to whom O'Malley solely 13 sold DPDC stock.

14 27. At all relevant times, O'Malley has been a signatory of DPDC's bank account, and 15 another bank account in which investor funds were deposited.

16 Failure to disclose previous Commission orders and other actions

17 28. Respondents failed to disclose to investors previous actions involving the 18 Commission.

19 29. In 1991, 1996, and 2003, the Commission entered orders against Bjerken for 20 violations of the Securities Act (the "Commission Action(s)").

21 30. On June 6, 1991, the Commission found that Bjerken sold unregistered securities
22 without being licensed to sell securities, and that Bjerken violated A.R.S. § 44-1991. Among other
23 things, the factual findings show that Bjerken overstated the potential return on the investment and 24 failed to disclose the risks. The Commission ordered Bjerken to pay jointly and severally restitution
25 of $67,500 and a $7,000 penalty.
26

1 31. On December 18, 1996, the Commission found that Bjerken sold unregistered stock
2 in a company called "Go Unified, Inc." Bjerken was not licensed to sell securities. The 3 Commission also held that Bjerken violated A.R.S. § 44-1991 for multiple omissions and 4 misrepresentations. Among other things, Bjerken failed to disclose the 1991 Commission order; he 5 claimed that the company issuing stock had $8,000,000 in assets when financial statements showed
6 that it had approximately $200,000; he claimed that the company had an 8.5 to 1 "price-earnings"
7 ration when in fact the company had no earnings or established market price (the company was a
8 barely-functioning startup); and Bjerken represented that he was selling a "desperate shareholder's"
9 stock, when in fact he sold his own and the company's stock. This order required Bjerken to pay
10 $119,000 in restitution, $42,000 in penalties, and an additional $5,000 penalty for violating the 11 Commission's 1991 order.

12 32. In the 2003 order, the Commission found that Bjerken, while not licensed with the 13 Commission, fraudulently offered and sold securities in the form of promissory notes. The 14 Commission also found that Bjerken violated the antifraud provisions of the Securities Act by 15 failing to disclose the 1991 and 1996 Commission orders to investors. This order required Bjerken
16 to pay $8,234,144 in restitution and a $10,000 penalty.

17 33. O'Malley was named as a respondent in the Commission's 1996 action involving 18 the Go Unified stock offering.

19 34. Additionally, one investor sued O'Malley for his role in the Go Unified stock 20 offering. Bjerken was also named as a defendant in the complaint. The investor obtained an 21 arbitration award against O'Malley and Go United for $14,400.

22 35. A second lawsuit against O'Malley involved O'Malley and Go United selling a 23 $50,000 promissory note. This lawsuit resulting in a judgment against O'Malley of $2,130 and 24 $62,609.27 ($50,000 of this was principal).

1 36. Respondents failed to disclose to investors the 1991, 1996 and 2003 orders and the 2 civil litigation, arbitration award and judgment against O'Malley. These orders and actions are also
3 not disclosed in the PPM.

4 Failure to disclose O'Malley's 2002 bankruptcy

5 37. In its PPM, DPDC touted O'Malley's significant business and financial experience
6 and expertise. This included stating that O'Malley graduated with a degree in business, oversaw the 7 expansion of a real-estate company into eight different states, built his own real-estate investment
8 company, and acquired a communications company in 1996. The PPM further describes O'Malley:
9 "Having spent his entire business career in real estate in one form or another, he understands the 10 ups and downs of the market and how to make them profitable depending on the cycle."

11 38. DPDC failed, however, to disclose facts that would make these representations not 12 misleading. In 2002, O'Malley filed for Chapter 11 Bankruptcy in Arizona. On 2/10/03, O'Malley
13 converted his bankruptcy to a Chapter 7. On 2/3/2004, the bankruptcy was discharged.

14 39. The PPM was given to all investors prior to their purchase of DPDC stock; these 15 two investors provided copies of their PPMs to the Division. Additionally, at least 33 investors
16 represented in their Subscriptions that they had read and accepted the PPM. The PPM did not 17 disclose O'Malley's 2002 bankruptcy.

18 Failure to disclose 2011 DPDC audit results

19 40. DPDC had an independent audit conducted that showed a net loss for 2010 with an 20 accumulated deficit of $1,235,322. The date of the independent audit for DPDC was July 15, 2011.
21 The results of the independent audit, specifically the net loss and accumulated deficit, were not 22 disclosed to at least three of the 20 investors who invested after that date.

23 41. At all times relevant to this matter, no shares of DPDC stock were advertised for 24 sale to the general public, in any media, by either DPDC or Respondents.

II.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. The Commission has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to Article XV of the Arizona Constitution and the Securities Act.

2. Respondent and DPDC offered or sold securities within or from Arizona, within the meaning of A.R.S. §§ 44-1801(15), 44-1801(21), and 44-1801(26).
